LET'S GO...

SECRET MISSIONS

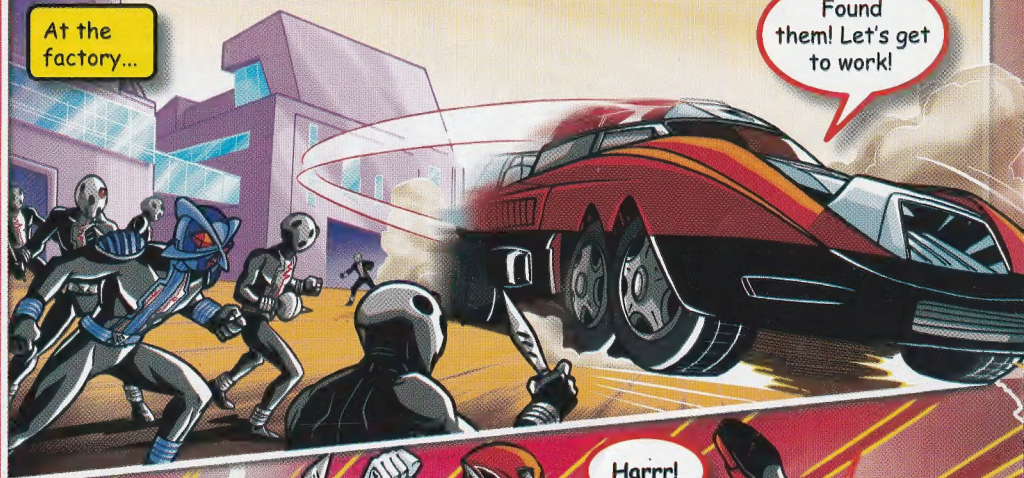

When evil Emperor Gruumm's Krybots were detected in Newtech City, the S.P.D. Power Rangers were sent to the scene...

Step on it - they're at the Sol-Dex Robotics Factory!

At the factory...

Found them! Let's get to work!

The Red Ranger took the fight to the Kryptobots...

Harrrr!

WA-KOOF!

Nobody noticed the Bluehead
Kryptobot leader dodge away...

He quickly hid something,
then teleported away.

The Rangers were approached by the factory's alien owner and his chief robot engineer...

I am Sol-Dex. You have done me a great service.

Any idea what those Krybots wanted?

Our robot technology, perhaps.

At Delta Base...

If Gruumm's after technology, he'll try again...

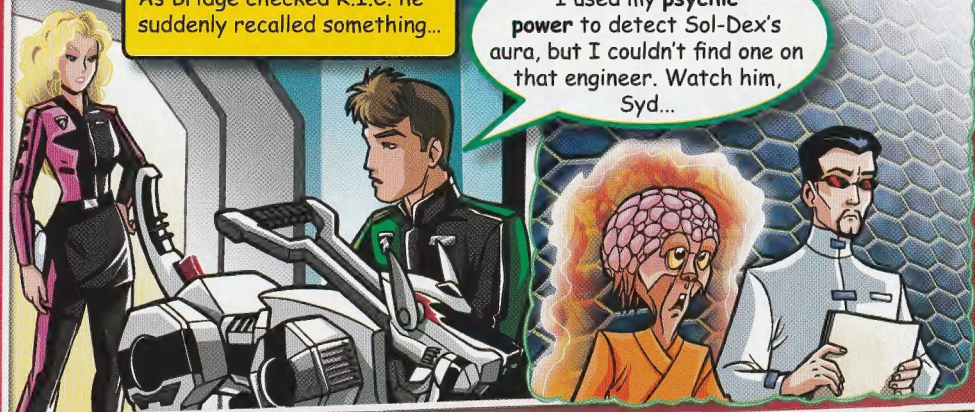

Commander Cruger gave Syd, the Pink Ranger, a secret mission.

Syd, use your surveillance skills and go undercover at the factory.

Got it!

As Bridge checked R.I.C. he suddenly recalled something...

Earlier,
I used my psychic power to detect Sol-Dex's aura, but I couldn't find one on that engineer. Watch him, Syd...

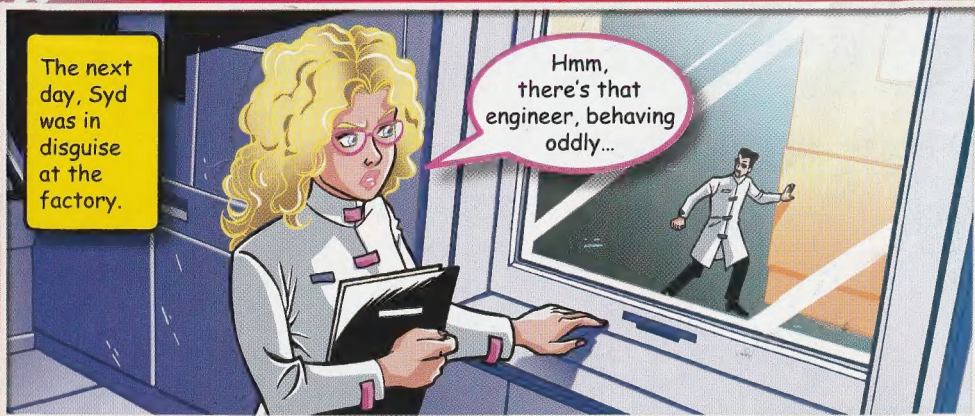

Meanwhile, on his spaceship, Emperor Gruumm was pleased...

You have done well!!

The next day, Syd was in disguise at the factory.

Hmm, there's that engineer, behaving oddly...

Keeping her distance, Syd watched the engineer open an air vent...

...take something from inside...

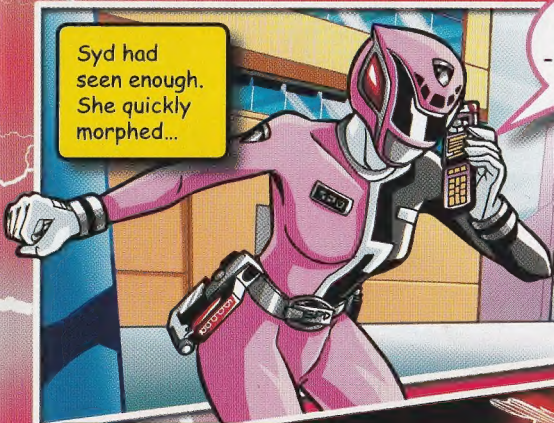

...and slot it into a hatch in his arm!

He's an android!
That's why Bridge couldn't detect his aura!

A Pink Ranger in a pink and black suit is shown from the waist up, holding a mobile phone to her ear. She is in a room with wooden paneling. In the background, a man in a white lab coat is running away.

Syd had seen enough.
She quickly morphed...

Pink Ranger to Delta Base
- I need immediate back-up!

A close-up of a man's face on the left, firing a red laser beam from his eyes. The beam hits the Pink Ranger on the right, who is being thrown back by the impact. Debris is flying around. A large sound effect 'SHOOMMM!' is written across the scene.

But she had been seen herself!

SHOOMMM!

Arrh!

The Pink Ranger is shown falling through the air, having been dropped by a yellow crane. Below, the man in the lab coat is on the ground, looking up. A large explosion is visible in the background.

As Syd leapt behind some crates, the engineer pressed buttons on his arm device...

Hope there's no x-ray vision to go with those laser eyes!

Suddenly a large crane began to move and change shape...

KRUNKKKK!

Huh?

...and in moments, it had transformed into a powerful robot!

The Krybots weren't stealing technology, they were delivering it! Now I can control this robot I've made...

...and crush the planet for Emperor Gruumm!

BOOOOMM!

Woah!

But just in time...

Canine Cannon!

Relieved to see her back-up, the Pink Ranger fired her Deltamax Striker...

Freeze!

Noll!

...and in his spaceship, Groomm smashed his monitor in rage!

Curse those Rangers!

The engineer was found guilty and sealed on to a Containment Card...

Nice job, Syd.
Do you want this as a souvenir?

No, thanks.
White's not my colour!

Sky, the Blue Ranger, plays everything by the rules. Following intense training at the S.P.D. Academy, he has become an expert in fighting criminals. At first he believed he should be the Red Ranger, just like his father before him. However, having seen Jack's leadership skills, he accepts his role as second in command.

MONSTER MACHINE

In his search for the perfect fighting machine, Mesogog developed the Geno Randomizer. This strange glass box is capable of creating new cyborg mutants, or enhancing a robot's strength. The first monster to be created by the device was called 'Bird Brain'.

MIGHTIER THAN THE ZORD?

In his lair, the evil Mesogog had used his Geno Randomizer to create a new monster...

Finally, Elsa -
I have a creature that can finish the Rangers and capture their Dino Gems!

Well if that's it, it's not much...

One blast of the Thundermax Saber should do it!

The monster took the hit...

...but not only was it unharmd - it had grown!

TSSCHHHH!

Don't know how you did that, Conner, but leave it to me - and some Raptor Cycle firepower!

But the monster just grew bigger still!

The Yellow Ranger suggested they combine Power Weapons...

Z-Rex Blaster, fire!

As before, the monster survived the attack and grew - then fought back!

VVVRAKOOOSH!

Arrrh!

The Yellow Ranger's shoulder was injured. The Blue Ranger contacted the Dino Lab...

Doctor O, we need back-up!

Watching in his lair, Mesogog sensed triumph.

My creature is collecting the Rangers' firepower energy...

...
the more it absorbs, the stronger it becomes!

Soon

WVROOOOOOM!

With the Yellow Ranger injured, the Black Ranger called for extra power.

Conner, Ethan, I'm summoning your Zords!

The Tricerazord and Tyrannozord arrived.

RUMMMMMBLE!

...and quickly formed the Thundersaurus Incomplete!

C'mon, Ethan,
let's do it!

The Megazord battled hard...

...but the creature
just kept growing!

The Black Ranger tried to find a reason...

Those
receiver dishes - maybe they amplify our firepower.

There was one energy form the Rangers hadn't tried - Kira's Ptera Scream!

The scream hit full volume. The Black Ranger watched the monster take in the sound...

If the sound keeps building up inside...

KIRABOOOOOOM!

...it'll explode!

Good work, Kira! Sometimes less is more!

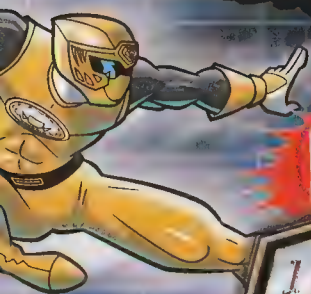

In Mesogog's lair, another sound was heard. The sound of Mesogog's fury!

NOOOOO!

NEW ENEMIES

In Newtech City, street crime had gone hi-tech - a powerful robot was slicing up a bank security van carrying a gold shipment

It's going to need something awesome to stop this mean machine!

Luckily,
'something awesome' was there seconds later

Delta Squad
Megazord on line!
Surrender now, or we fire!

When the robot tried to escape, the Megazord was ready with its blaster.

Fools!
They should have stood and fought!

Soon, the Rangers found two crooks crawling from the robot cockpit.

Well, well...
Reko Veltman!

You know that creep?

Yeah, from my days on the streets.
He was a just a small-time criminal back then...

I'll take him in for questioning in Delta Runner 1.

The Rangers powered down and returned to base in their Delta Runners.
Sky was back first

What took you so long, Jack?

I waited for everyone to leave before I let Reko escape.

What?!

Later, across the city, Reko Veltman edged nervously into an old warehouse at an abandoned wharf.

Hey... anyone home?

GRRRRRAH!

Uh-oh!

Reko heard a voice
from the shadows.

Wait, Ro-dogs!

GRRRRRAH!
GRRRRRAH!

Broodwing! It went wrong but I...
I escaped...

Fooll!

You did not escape. See? A tracer! You've led the Rangers here!

Ro-dogs - attack!

GRRRRRAH!

The Green Ranger put his Patrol Cycle lasers to use.

ZZZI-BOOOINIFF!

while the Red Ranger reached for his Delta Blasters

The third Ro-dog found its target

GRRAAAAH!

Aarh!

The Blue Ranger looked doomed, until

THAMM!

His name's Broodwing! I'll tell you everything if you put me on a Containment Card. That's the only place I'm safe!

Reko got his wish after explaining that Broodwing was an evil arms-seller

Captain Jack Sparrow owes a blood debt to the legendary Davy Jones, Ruler of the Ocean Depths, who captains the ghostly Flying Dutchman. Unless the ever-crafty Jack figures a cunning way out of this Faustian pact, he will be cursed to an afterlife of eternal servitude and damnation.

This development interrupts the wedding plans of Will Turner and Elizabeth Swann, who once again find themselves thrust into Jack's misadventures, leading to thrilling confrontations with sea monsters, cannibals, ghost pirates, a Gypsy Queen, and even the mysterious appearance of Will's long-lost father Bootstrap Bill.

Meanwhile, ruthless Pirate Hunter Lord Cutler Beckett of the East India Trading Company sets his sights on retrieving the fabled 'Dead Man's Chest', a box that contains the beating heart of Davy Jones himself.

According to legend, whomever possesses the Dead Man's Chest gains control of Davy Jones, and Beckett intends to use this awesome power to destroy every last Pirate of the Caribbean once and for all.
